

Name _____

Teen Rebellion

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the central conflict in the story "Teen Rebellion"?
 - a) Sarah wants to attend a party, but her parents won't allow it.
 - b) Sarah's friends want her to rebel against her parents.
 - c) Sarah's parents want her to break the rules.
 - d) Sarah's parents let her do whatever she wants.

2. Why does Sarah decide to sneak out to the party against her parents' wishes?
 - a) She wants to make her parents proud.
 - b) She wants to prove that she can follow the rules.
 - c) She feels suffocated by the strict rules at home and wants more freedom.
 - d) She has no friends to spend time with at home.

3. What happens at the party that makes Sarah regret her decision to rebel?
 - a) She meets a famous celebrity.
 - b) She has a lot of fun with her friends.
 - c) She finds herself in uncomfortable situations and feels out of place.
 - d) She gets a job offer.

4. How do Mr. and Mrs. Patterson react when Sarah calls them for help?
 - a) They scold her and refuse to pick her up.
 - b) They rush to pick her up and are relieved to find her safe.
 - c) They ignore her call.
 - d) They tell her to find her own way home.

5. What do the Pattersons decide to do after Sarah's rebellion?
 - a) They decide to impose even stricter rules.
 - b) They let Sarah do whatever she wants.
 - c) They revisit some of the family rules and involve their children in discussions about what is fair and reasonable.
 - d) They disown Sarah.

