

Name _____

Teen Rebellion

Short Answer Key

1. Sarah rebelled against her parents' rules because she felt suffocated by the strict rules and longed for more freedom like her friends had.
2. Sarah learned that the freedom she longed for came with consequences, and she found herself in uncomfortable situations. She realized the importance of responsibility and understanding.

