

Name _____

Teenage Triumph

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How might a teenager go about solving the "identity's puzzle" mentioned in the Haiku?
2. Describe a personal experience or situation where you or someone you know felt that their teenage years were awkward, as mentioned in the Haiku. How did they handle it?
3. What do you think could be some challenges teenagers face in embarking on the journey of self-discovery and self-love, as suggested in the Haiku?
4. Can you share some strategies or advice for teenagers who are starting their own journey of self-love, based on the message of the Haiku?

