

Name _____

Templeton's Choice

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How is Templeton different from Charlotte and Wilbur?
  - a) He is kinder and more helpful.
  - b) He only cares about himself and what benefits him.
  - c) He is the bravest character in the story.
  - d) He is Wilbur's best friend from the start.

2. Why does Templeton agree to help Charlotte and Wilbur?
  - a) He wants to save Wilbur because they are best friends.
  - b) He loves helping others.
  - c) He is promised food if Wilbur survives.
  - d) He is forced to help by the farmer.

3. How does Templeton help in Charlotte's plan?
  - a) He finds words for Charlotte to weave into her web.
  - b) He writes the words himself.
  - c) He convinces the farmer to keep Wilbur.
  - d) He tells Wilbur to run away.

4. What role does Templeton play in the story?
  - a) He provides humor and helps in his own way.
  - b) He is the villain trying to stop Wilbur.
  - c) He teaches Wilbur how to spin a web.
  - d) He replaces Charlotte as Wilbur's best friend.

5. What is one lesson that Templeton's character teaches?
  - a) Only kind and selfless animals matter.
  - b) Rats are always unhelpful and sneaky.
  - c) Being greedy always leads to bad consequences.
  - d) Even selfish actions can help others in unexpected ways.

