

Name _____

Templeton's Choice

Short Answer Key

1. Templeton refuses to help at first because he does not see why saving Wilbur matters to him.
2. Templeton is important because he finds words for Charlotte's web, which helps save Wilbur.
3. His grumpy, sneaky, and greedy behavior adds humor to the story.
4. Templeton cares most about food and his own comfort.
5. Even though he is selfish, Templeton helps find words for Charlotte, which plays a role in saving Wilbur's life.

