

Name _____

Where Do Termites Live?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of climate do termites prefer?
 - A. Warm and moist
 - B. Cold and snowy
 - C. Dry and windy
 - D. Cool and foggy

2. Where do subterranean termites live?
 - A. Inside tree bark
 - B. On the surface of leaves
 - C. In open fields
 - D. Underground in tunnels

3. What is a termite mound made of?
 - A. Sand and rocks
 - B. Soil, saliva, and dung
 - C. Leaves and twigs
 - D. Grass and mud

4. How do termite mounds help the colony?
 - A. They regulate temperature and airflow.
 - B. They store food for the termites.
 - C. They collect rainwater.
 - D. They attract other insects for food.

5. Why are termites important in rainforests?
 - A. They eat other insects.
 - B. They protect trees from disease.
 - C. They help recycle nutrients by breaking down dead trees.
 - D. They create homes for birds.

