

Name _____

What Do Termites Eat?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of eater is a termite?
 - A. Carnivore
 - B. Herbivore
 - C. Omnivore
 - D. Scavenger

2. What is cellulose?
 - A. A type of bacteria
 - B. A type of wood termites avoid
 - C. A special part of a termite's body
 - D. A material found in plant cell walls

3. Where do termites get their food?
 - A. Rocks and sand
 - B. Metal and plastic
 - C. Wood, leaves, and paper
 - D. Flowers and nectar

4. How do termites break down cellulose?
 - A. By chewing very slowly
 - B. By heating it with their bodies
 - C. With the help of bacteria in their stomachs
 - D. With sharp teeth

5. Why are termites important for the environment?
 - A. They help recycle nutrients into the soil.
 - B. They build homes for other animals.
 - C. They prevent plants from growing too tall.
 - D. They protect forests from predators.

