

Name _____

How Do Termites Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main way termites communicate?
 - A. By singing
 - B. Through chemical signals called pheromones
 - C. By waving their legs
 - D. Using light signals

2. What do termites use vibrations for?
 - A. To attract food
 - B. To confuse predators
 - C. To make their tunnels stronger
 - D. To warn the colony of danger

3. What happens when a worker termite finds food?
 - A. It keeps the food for itself.
 - B. It creates a pheromone trail for others to follow.
 - C. It ignores the food.
 - D. It makes clicking sounds to alert the colony.

4. How do soldier termites warn the colony of danger?
 - A. By using pheromones and banging their heads
 - B. By carrying the queen to safety
 - C. By making loud buzzing sounds
 - D. By blocking tunnels with their bodies

5. Why do termites sometimes nudge or tap each other?
 - A. To clean each other
 - B. To share food
 - C. To signal danger or direct attention
 - D. To prepare for flying

