

Name _____

Termites: Tiny Builders of the Insect World

Short Answer Key

1. Termites use their strong jaws to chew through wood and other plants.
2. Termites build mounds underground or inside wood.
3. Termites help the environment by breaking down dead plants and recycling nutrients into the soil.
4. Workers in a termite colony gather food and build tunnels.
5. Termites can damage houses and furniture by eating wood.

