

Name _____

The Role of Termites in the Ecosystem

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main role of termites in the ecosystem?
 - A. Pollinating flowers
 - B. Hunting small insects
 - C. Building nests for other animals
 - D. Recycling dead plant material

2. How do termites improve soil health?
 - A. By eating grass
 - B. By mixing the soil with their tunnels
 - C. By chasing away predators
 - D. By collecting water for plants

3. What do termites eat besides wood?
 - A. Rocks
 - B. Metal
 - C. Leaves and grass
 - D. Sand

4. Why are termites important in the food chain?
 - A. They are a major food source for predators.
 - B. They hunt other animals.
 - C. They protect other insects.
 - D. They provide water for birds.

5. What process do termites help with by breaking down plant materials?
 - A. Decomposition
 - B. Pollination
 - C. Photosynthesis
 - D. Evaporation

