

Name _____

Texts from the Future

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Tim initially responds with disbelief but decides to play along due to curiosity about the mysterious messages.
2. An example of a practical message is the advice about the surprise pop quiz in math class, which Tim follows and benefits from by acing the quiz.
3. The parrot at the pet store seems to know everything about Tim, including his personal memories and secrets.
4. As time passes, the messages become more cryptic and surreal, including warnings about UFO sightings and time-traveling banana peels. They add humor and intrigue to the story.
5. Tim discovers the source of the mysterious texts when he traces them to a hidden app on his phone that he didn't remember installing. He stops receiving the texts by deleting the app.

