

Name _____

The Giving Bond

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the tree symbolize in the story?
 - a) A selfish giver
 - b) A home for animals
 - c) A strict teacher
 - d) A source of endless love and sacrifice

2. Why did the boy keep coming back to the tree?
 - a) To play and enjoy its shade
 - b) To ask for help whenever he needed something
 - c) To take care of the tree
 - d) To plant more trees

3. How did the tree feel every time she gave something to the boy?
 - a) Sad and regretful
 - b) Happy to help him
 - c) Angry that he took too much
 - d) Worried about her survival

4. What lesson can we learn from the story?
 - a) We should always take as much as we can.
 - b) People should never ask for help.
 - c) True love means giving without expecting anything in return.
 - d) Trees should not be cut down.

5. Why did the boy finally return when he was old?
 - a) He was tired and needed a place to rest.
 - b) He wanted more from the tree.
 - c) He wanted to plant a new tree.
 - d) He wanted to apologize to the tree.

