

Name _____

The Power of Kindness

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Some people might find it hard because they worry about what others think, while others may find it easy because they enjoy helping people.
2. Answers will vary, but students should discuss how they might befriend, admire, or question someone like Stargirl.
3. Some people struggle with kindness because they are not used to it or they think there must be something in return.
4. Small acts of kindness can make people feel valued, create a more positive environment, and inspire others to be kind as well.

