

Name _____

Threads of Change

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. In what ways did Lily's passion for vintage fashion and sustainability evolve throughout her journey? How did her experiences shape her mission to promote eco-friendly fashion choices?
2. Describe the challenges and criticism that Lily faced during her advocacy for sustainable fashion. How did she respond to these challenges, and what kept her committed to her cause?
3. How did Lily's collaboration with Isabella Gray contribute to the advancement of sustainable fashion practices? Provide specific examples of their initiatives and their impact on the fashion industry.
4. Reflect on the significance of Lily's decision to attend the university with an environmental sustainability program. How did this decision align with her values, and what impact do you think she continued to have in the field of sustainable fashion?

