

Name _____

The Three Wishes

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the transformation of Thomas and Sarah's characters throughout the story. How did their initial contentment with a simple life change as they gained wealth and possessions?
2. Analyze the theme of materialism and its consequences in the story. How did the pursuit of material wealth affect Thomas and Sarah's happiness and relationships?
3. Explore the significance of the final wish in the story and its role in teaching the lesson of the tale. How did undoing their previous wishes reflect the characters' growth and realization?
4. Reflect on the message of the story and how it relates to the idea that true wealth is not measured by possessions but by the quality of relationships and connections. How can this lesson apply to real-life situations and choices individuals make?

