

Name _____

The Amazing Transformation of Urbanization: A Journey Through Time

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. In your own words, describe the process of urbanization and its significance throughout history.
2. Imagine you lived during the Industrial Revolution. How do you think your life would have been affected by the rapid urbanization and the growth of factory towns and cities?
3. How might a city address the challenges of overcrowding and pollution caused by urbanization while also promoting sustainability?
4. If you were a city planner, what strategies would you implement to create a more inclusive and environmentally friendly urban environment for residents and future generations?

