

Name _____

Ties That Bind

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main theme of the poem?
 - a) The joys of a parent-child relationship
 - b) The complexities of a strained parent-child relationship
 - c) The simplicity of family ties
 - d) The importance of control in relationships

2. How does the speaker describe the relationship between the parent and child in the poem?
 - a) Perfect and without flaws
 - b) Strained and filled with love and discord
 - c) Easygoing and carefree
 - d) Unbreakable and unchangeable

3. What emotions does the speaker mention in the poem?
 - a) Only happiness and contentment
 - b) Only anger and resentment
 - c) Love and discord
 - d) Love and control

4. What does the poem suggest about the complexities of love?
 - a) Love is always easy and straightforward.
 - b) Love is not important in relationships.
 - c) Love can be both beautiful and challenging.
 - d) Love should be controlled and regulated.

5. How does the poem end, and what message does it convey?
 - a) The poem ends with a breakup, conveying the idea that parent-child relationships are not worth the effort.
 - b) The poem ends with a reconciliation, conveying the idea that despite the complexities, love and family ties endure.
 - c) The poem ends with a lesson on how to control relationships.
 - d) The poem ends with a declaration that relationships are not important.

