

Name _____

What's on a Tiger's Menu?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What do tigers eat?
 - A. Meat
 - B. Grass
 - C. Fruits
 - D. Leaves

2. What is the main reason tigers are good hunters?
 - A. They hunt in groups.
 - B. They can fly.
 - C. They eat plants when animals are not available.
 - D. They use sharp teeth, strong jaws, and powerful muscles.

3. How do tigers catch their prey?
 - A. They wait for animals to come to them.
 - B. They use their stripes to blend in and then pounce.
 - C. They scare animals into running toward them.
 - D. They hunt only at night.

4. Why are tigers considered important to their ecosystems?
 - A. They keep herbivore populations under control.
 - B. They eat grass to keep it short.
 - C. They plant trees in their habitats.
 - D. They stop predators from hunting.

5. What is one challenge tigers face when finding food?
 - A. Other tigers eat their prey.
 - B. They don't know how to hunt.
 - C. Habitat loss and human activity reduce their hunting areas.
 - D. They only eat once a month.

