

Name _____

How Tigers Talk: Communication in the Wild

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the main purpose of a tiger's roar?
 - A. To greet other tigers
 - B. To warn other tigers to stay away
 - C. To scare prey animals
 - D. To communicate with cubs

2. How do tigers use their tails to communicate?
 - A. By using them to hunt
 - B. By swaying them when calm or lashing them when upset
 - C. By wrapping them around other tigers
 - D. By tapping them on trees

3. What does scent marking help tigers do?
 - A. Tell other tigers about themselves and their territory
 - B. Find food
 - C. Hide from predators
 - D. Recognize their cubs

4. What is a "chuff"?
 - A. A loud roar used to warn enemies
 - B. A growl used to scare prey
 - C. A soft, purring sound used to show affection
 - D. A hiss used when threatened

5. How do tiger stripes help with communication?
 - A. They make tigers blend into the forest.
 - B. They show a tiger's age.
 - C. They scare other animals.
 - D. They help tigers recognize each other.

