

Name _____

Mastering Time: The Key to Success

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the analogy used to describe time in the passage?
 - a. Time is like a river.
 - b. Time is like a treasure chest.
 - c. Time is like a magical wallet.
 - d. Time is like a vast desert.

2. Why is time considered more precious than money?
 - a. Because money can buy happiness.
 - b. Because time is limited and irreversible.
 - c. Because money can be earned endlessly.
 - d. Because time doesn't require any management.

3. What does effective time management help reduce?
 - a. Dreams and aspirations
 - b. Stress
 - c. Procrastination
 - d. Free time

4. What does setting priorities involve in time management?
 - a. Allocating time for hobbies only
 - b. Identifying what's most important and allocating time accordingly
 - c. Ignoring responsibilities and deadlines
 - d. Always choosing work over personal activities

5. How does time management benefit individuals beyond their immediate tasks?
 - a. It allows them to procrastinate more effectively.
 - b. It helps them find more leisure time.
 - c. It teaches discipline and benefits various aspects of life.
 - d. It eliminates the need for setting boundaries.

