

Name _____

Timeless Lessons

Short Answer Key

1. The Crucible is important today because it teaches lessons about fear, truth, and justice.
2. The play shows that when people believe things without proof, innocent people can get hurt.
3. John Proctor had to choose between lying to save himself or telling the truth and being punished.
4. It teaches that standing up for the truth is hard, but it is the right thing to do.
5. Questioning authority is important because leaders sometimes make mistakes or unfair decisions.

