

Name _____

Timeless Farm

Short Answer Key

1. The animals believe the pigs' lies because Squealer uses clever words and scares them into trusting the pigs.
2. The pigs use propaganda, like changing the commandments and lying about food supplies, to trick the animals into thinking everything is fine.
3. When the pigs gain too much power, they become corrupt and treat the other animals unfairly, just like the humans did.
4. The animals wait too long because they trust the pigs and are afraid to speak out.
5. The story teaches that fairness and equality require leaders to be honest and people to hold them accountable.
