

Name _____

Timing Matters: When to Plant Biennial Flowers

Multiple Choice Questions

1. When can biennial plants be planted?
 - A) Only in the summer
 - B) Only in the fall
 - C) Either in the fall or the spring
 - D) Only in the winter

2. What advantage does fall planting offer for biennial plants?
 - A) Early flowering in the fall
 - B) Establishment of root systems before winter
 - C) Protection from summer heat
 - D) Longer daylight hours

3. Why is proper soil preparation important for planting biennial flowers?
 - A) To repel pests
 - B) To deter weeds
 - C) To improve fertility and texture
 - D) To increase rainfall

4. How often should soil be watered after planting biennial flowers?
 - A) Once a month
 - B) Every day
 - C) Only when it rains
 - D) When soil is consistently moist but not waterlogged

5. What maintenance tasks are essential for nurturing biennial plants?
 - A) Weeding, mulching, and deadheading spent flowers
 - B) Applying fertilizer once a year
 - C) Watering only during the daytime
 - D) Regular pruning and trimming

