Tom's Games

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

(Answers will vary; here are possible responses.)

1. Huck follows Tom because he is used to looking up to him, but later he realizes that not all of Tom's ideas are good.
2. A student might say they would stand up to Tom because Jim's safety is more important or that they would follow along out of loyalty.
3. Tom's actions show how some people focus more on fun and adventure rather than the serious problems others face.
4. Huck will likely be more confident in making his own decisions and standing up for what he believes is right.
