

Name _____

The Tragedy Unveiled

Short Answer Key

1. The overall mood and atmosphere in "Guernica" are somber, tragic, and filled with horror and suffering.
2. The twisted and contorted faces in the painting represent the fear, pain, and anguish experienced by the people in the midst of war.
3. The flower in the painting is a symbol of hope and peace amid the chaos and destruction of war.
4. The painting is titled "Guernica" in reference to the town of Guernica in Spain, which was bombed during the Spanish Civil War, resulting in widespread destruction and loss of life.
5. The poem conveys the message that peace is essential, and war brings suffering, destruction, and tragedy.

