

Name _____

The Time-Traveling Diary

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How would you handle the responsibility of time-traveling, knowing that your actions could affect the course of history? What precautions would you take to avoid altering the past?
2. In what ways did Lily's encounters with historical figures and time periods enrich her understanding of the world and her own life? How did these experiences shape her as a person?
3. Imagine you had access to Lily's time-traveling diary. What historical event or era would you be most curious to explore, and what questions would you hope to answer during your journey?
4. Discuss the theme of "learning from the past" in the story. How did Lily's experiences emphasize the importance of preserving history and understanding the consequences of one's actions in different time periods?

