

Name _____

The Time-Traveling Toaster

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What unusual ability does Sarah's toaster possess?
 - A) It can make perfect toast every time.
 - B) It can transport people through time.
 - C) It can communicate with other kitchen appliances.
 - D) It can play music while toasting.
2. Where does Sarah find herself after her toaster's time-traveling journey begins?
 - A) Ancient Egypt
 - B) A futuristic world with flying cars
 - C) A bustling city in the 1920s
 - D) All of the above
3. How do people in the past react to Sarah's modern attire and explanations of her toaster?
 - A) They immediately understand and embrace her explanations.
 - B) They mistake her for a deity or famous historical figure.
 - C) They become angry and demand her departure.
 - D) They ignore her and go about their business.
4. What unexpected challenge does Sarah face in the Renaissance era?
 - A) She must solve a complex math problem.
 - B) She competes in a cooking contest.
 - C) She accidentally challenges Leonardo da Vinci to a painting duel.
 - D) She encounters a time-traveling rival.
5. How does Sarah feel about her time-traveling adventures in the end?
 - A) She laughs at the absurdity of her experiences and newfound fame.
 - B) She is disappointed that she didn't get to visit more historical periods.
 - C) She is relieved to be home and vows never to use the toaster again.
 - D) She regrets ever owning the Time-Traveling Toaster.

