

Name _____

Treaty Tales

Short Answer Questions Answer Key

1. The government promised money, supplies, or new land in exchange for tribal land.
2. Settlers often broke promises and moved onto Native lands.
3. They were moved onto smaller reservations and promised supplies and peace, but the promises were rarely kept.
4. It broke up reservations and gave land to individual Native Americans, causing tribes to lose more land.
5. They are going to court to fight for the promises made in old treaties.

