

Name _____

The Mystery-Solvers' Treehouse

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How did the treehouse serve as a central element in the club's activities and adventures? Describe its significance to the club members.
2. Discuss the qualities that make Emily, Jack, Mia, and Sam a successful mystery-solving team. How do their individual strengths complement each other?
3. Imagine you are a new member of "The Mystery-Solvers" club. What unique skill or talent would you bring to the group, and how would you contribute to their future adventures?
4. Share your thoughts on the importance of teamwork and friendship as highlighted in the reading passage. How did the club members' friendship help them succeed in their missions?

