

Name _____

True Colors

Short Answer Key

1. Stargirl expressed her individuality by wearing unique clothes, playing the ukulele, and being kind to others in unexpected ways.
2. At first, they were interested in her, but over time, they rejected her because she was too different.
3. Leo liked Stargirl but also wanted to be accepted by the other students, so he felt torn between her and fitting in.
4. When she tried to change, she lost her happiness and unique spirit.
5. Her story shows that pretending to be someone else isn't fulfilling, and true happiness comes from being yourself.

