

Name _____

True Happiness

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What did the boy believe would bring him happiness?
 - a) Playing in the shade of the tree
 - b) Spending time with the tree
 - c) Taking things to meet his needs
 - d) Helping the tree grow

2. Why did the tree keep giving to the boy?
 - a) Because it needed something in return
 - b) Because it believed making him happy would bring happiness
 - c) Because it wanted to test his loyalty
 - d) Because it had no choice

3. What did the boy realize at the end of the story?
 - a) That he should have taken more from the tree
 - b) That material things did not bring true fulfillment
 - c) That the tree never really cared about him
 - d) That he should have asked for more things

4. How does the story challenge traditional ideas of happiness?
 - a) It shows that having everything we want does not always make us happy
 - b) It teaches that happiness only comes from giving everything away
 - c) It shows that people are happiest when they get what they ask for
 - d) It suggests that happiness comes from having many possessions

5. What could the boy have done differently to find true happiness?
 - a) Taken more from the tree to have a better life
 - b) Left the tree alone and never returned
 - c) Built a bigger house using more of the tree's branches
 - d) Visited the tree more often and appreciated what he had

