

Name _____

Trust Trouble

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why do the siblings trust the Cat at first?
 - a) He promises to help them clean the house.
 - b) He makes them laugh and seems fun.
 - c) He explains the rules of the house.
 - d) He scares the Fish into agreeing with him.

2. What role does the Fish play in the story?
 - a) He supports the Cat's wild ideas.
 - b) He encourages the siblings to have more fun.
 - c) He warns the siblings about trusting the Cat.
 - d) He cleans up the mess after the Cat leaves.

3. What causes the siblings to lose trust in the Cat?
 - a) The Cat brings in Thing 1 and Thing 2, who create a big mess.
 - b) The Cat refuses to leave their house.
 - c) The Fish agrees with the Cat's behavior.
 - d) Their mother comes home and sees the mess.

4. What lesson do the siblings learn about trust?
 - a) Trust should always be given freely.
 - b) It is important to listen to people who want to break rules.
 - c) Trust should be given carefully and with good judgment.
 - d) Having fun is more important than being responsible.

5. What does the Cat do at the end of the story?
 - a) He refuses to clean up the mess.
 - b) He teaches the siblings how to clean.
 - c) He convinces the Fish to stop worrying.
 - d) He cleans the house before their mother returns.

