

Name _____

Friends Turned Foes

Short Answer Key

1. Sarah's family believed in fighting for their country, while David's family believed in peace and diplomacy.
2. They met deep within the woods.
3. The forest was engulfed in flames during the war.
4. Their sense of duty and loyalty to their respective sides kept them from running away together.
5. The war tested their friendship and love, ultimately leading them to make painful sacrifices and separate.

