

Name _____

Twisted Truths

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does the narrator claim he is not mad?
 - a) He has proof that he is sane.
 - b) He believes his actions are reasonable.
 - c) The police tell him he is not mad.
 - d) The cat tells him he is not mad.

2. What causes the narrator to change?
 - a) He moves to a new house.
 - b) He becomes sick.
 - c) He drinks too much and becomes cruel.
 - d) He gets a new pet.

3. How does the new cat remind the narrator of Pluto?
 - a) It is the same size and color.
 - b) It can talk like Pluto.
 - c) It follows him everywhere.
 - d) It looks exactly the same, except for a white mark.

4. What makes the narrator finally get caught?
 - a) The cat leads the police to his hiding place.
 - b) The cat makes a strange noise, alerting the police.
 - c) The narrator confesses his crime out of guilt.
 - d) A neighbor sees what he has done.

5. What does the narrator's story show about guilt?
 - a) Guilt can change the way someone sees reality.
 - b) Guilt always leads people to tell the truth.
 - c) Guilt has no effect on a person's actions.
 - d) Guilt makes people happy.

