Twisted Words

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. The animals didn't question the pigs because they trusted them, were scared of punishment, and didn't feel confident enough to speak up.
2. In real life, leaders sometimes use speeches or confusing language to make their decisions seem better than they really are, just like the pigs.
3. If the animals had been more critical, they might have stopped the pigs from gaining so much power and could have worked together for fairness.
4. It's important to question leaders because they might use their power for their own benefit instead of helping everyone.
