

Name _____

The Deadly Puzzle: The Chicago Tylenol Murders

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the common factor among the victims in the Chicago Tylenol Murders?
 - a. They all lived in Chicago
 - b. They had all taken Tylenol
 - c. They were all related to each other
 - d. They all died of natural causes

2. What was added to the Tylenol capsules that caused the deaths?
 - a. Sugar
 - b. Salt
 - c. Cyanide
 - d. Baking soda

3. How did Johnson & Johnson respond to the deaths?
 - a. They denied any wrongdoing
 - b. They initiated a nationwide recall of Tylenol products
 - c. They blamed the stores for selling contaminated products
 - d. They increased the price of Tylenol

4. Why was it difficult to trace the source of the tainted Tylenol?
 - a. Because the victims didn't use Tylenol
 - b. Because the bottles were all clearly marked
 - c. Because the bottles had been tampered with in various stores
 - d. Because the police didn't want to investigate

5. What lasting impact did the Chicago Tylenol Murders have on consumer safety?
 - a. It led to fewer safety measures in product packaging
 - b. It had no impact on consumer safety
 - c. It resulted in changes to product manufacturing and packaging
 - d. It caused people to stop buying over-the-counter medications

