

Name _____

The Deadly Puzzle: The Chicago Tylenol Murders

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Describe the initial reaction of the public and authorities when the deaths linked to Tylenol were discovered in Chicago. How did the fear and uncertainty spread beyond the city?
2. Discuss the actions taken by Johnson & Johnson in response to the Chicago Tylenol Murders. How did their swift response affect their reputation and the company's bottom line?
3. Explain why it was so difficult to trace the source of the tainted Tylenol bottles. What challenges did investigators face in identifying the person responsible for the tampering?
4. Reflect on the long-term consequences of the Chicago Tylenol Murders. How have these events influenced the way companies package and distribute their products to ensure consumer safety?

