

Name _____

Unfair Trials

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What made the Salem witch trials unfair?
 - a) The accused had a fair chance to defend themselves.
 - b) The judges carefully listened to all evidence.
 - c) People could not prove their innocence.
 - d) Everyone accused was guilty.

2. Why did Judge Danforth refuse to listen to evidence?
 - a) He wanted to find the truth.
 - b) He cared more about keeping his power.
 - c) He believed John Proctor's claims.
 - d) He thought Abigail was lying.

3. How did Abigail Williams take advantage of the unfair system?
 - a) She used the court to accuse innocent people and gain power.
 - b) She helped prove people innocent.
 - c) She apologized for her lies.
 - d) She was too scared to accuse anyone.

4. What lesson does The Crucible teach about justice?
 - a) Courts should always trust accusations.
 - b) Judges should never change their minds.
 - c) Fear makes people more honest.
 - d) Justice should be based on truth, not fear.

5. How is The Crucible connected to real-life events in the 1950s?
 - a) People were accused of being communists without proof.
 - b) The judges from Salem were still in power.
 - c) Witches were found in America in the 1950s.
 - d) Everyone learned to be fair after Salem.

