

Name _____

Languages and Dialects in the United Kingdom

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which language is the official language of the UK?
 - a) Welsh
 - b) Gaelic
 - c) English
 - d) Cockney

2. What is one place where Welsh is commonly used?
 - a) Road signs in Wales
 - b) Television shows in London
 - c) Newspapers in Scotland
 - d) Schools in Northern Ireland

3. What is a feature of the Cockney accent?
 - a) It is spoken in Newcastle.
 - b) It uses rhyming slang.
 - c) It is part of the Gaelic language family.
 - d) It is only spoken in schools.

4. Where is Scottish Gaelic primarily spoken?
 - a) In the cities of Wales
 - b) In the Highlands and islands of Scotland
 - c) In Belfast, Northern Ireland
 - d) In the southeastern part of England

5. How does the UK show its linguistic diversity?
 - a) By teaching only English in schools
 - b) By having no accents or dialects
 - c) By banning other languages from public use
 - d) By celebrating many languages and regional accents

