The Geography and Natural Features of the United Kingdom

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Students should explain how each country has different landscapes—mountains in Scotland and Wales, rivers in England, and coastal features in Northern Ireland—and what this says about their geography.
2. Students should choose one location and provide reasons, such as the scenery, historical importance, or activities they'd enjoy.
3. Students should discuss how the beauty, mystery, and uniqueness of the UK's natural features might inspire creative works.
4. Students should reflect on how visiting a country's natural sites can reveal its cultural heritage, historical events, and the lifestyle of its people.
