

Name _____

The United Nations: Guardians of Human Rights Worldwide

Short Answer

1. Why was the United Nations established, and what is its main purpose?
2. Explain the significance of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) and its role in protecting human rights.
3. How does the UN provide humanitarian assistance in crisis situations, and why is this important for human rights?
4. Describe the UN's role in monitoring and reporting on human rights situations in different countries.
5. Give an example of a situation in which the UN might intervene to protect human rights.

