

Name _____

Clean Water for All: A Journey Towards Universal Access

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the United Nations' goal regarding clean drinking water by 2030?
 - a) To provide access to clean water to everyone by 2025
 - b) To improve water infrastructure in developed countries
 - c) To achieve universal access to clean drinking water by 2030
 - d) To reduce waterborne diseases globally

2. What is one key aspect of achieving universal access to clean water?
 - a) Building more factories near water sources
 - b) Investing in water infrastructure
 - c) Reducing water purification efforts
 - d) Increasing water pollution

3. How have advancements in technology contributed to improving access to clean water?
 - a) They have made water purification systems more expensive.
 - b) They have made water purification systems less efficient.
 - c) They have made water purification systems more efficient and affordable.
 - d) They have led to more waterborne diseases.

4. What challenges still exist in achieving universal access to clean water?
 - a) There are no remaining challenges.
 - b) Some remote and disadvantaged areas lack access to clean water.
 - c) Climate change has no impact on water availability.
 - d) All communities have equal access to clean water.

5. Why is community involvement crucial in achieving universal access to clean water?
 - a) It is not crucial; governments alone can achieve this goal.
 - b) Local initiatives and community-driven projects are ineffective.
 - c) Communities play a vital role in ensuring clean water reaches marginalized areas.
 - d) Global organizations can solve the problem without community involvement.

