

Name _____

The Big City Beckon: What Drives Rural-to-Urban Migration?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one of the main factors driving rural-to-urban migration?
  - a) Access to better farmland
  - b) The desire for a simpler life
  - c) Economic opportunities
  - d) Availability of clean water

2. Why do families often move to urban areas in search of better education?
  - a) To have access to better schools and colleges
  - b) To live closer to extended family
  - c) To escape the noise of the city
  - d) To enjoy rural leisure activities

3. What factor may influence individuals to relocate to cities for healthcare reasons?
  - a) Access to advanced medical facilities
  - b) Availability of fresh produce
  - c) Opportunities for outdoor activities
  - d) A preference for rural living

4. Why are cities often seen as offering a higher standard of living?
  - a) Because they have more open space and greenery
  - b) Due to their modern infrastructure and amenities
  - c) Because they have fewer job opportunities
  - d) Because they lack cultural diversity

5. How did Pablo Picasso's art reflect the urban experience and migration?
  - a) Through his use of traditional painting techniques
  - b) By focusing solely on rural landscapes
  - c) Through abstract and cubist styles that conveyed city life
  - d) By avoiding any depiction of social change

