

Name _____

The Big City Beckon: What Drives Rural-to-Urban Migration?

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Explain the concept of rural-to-urban migration and its importance for individuals and families.
2. Imagine you are a farmer facing agricultural challenges in a rural area. Describe the factors that might motivate you to consider migrating to an urban area.
3. In what ways can improved access to education and healthcare in urban areas impact the overall development of a region or country?
4. Discuss the significance of cultural attractions and social activities in cities as factors that may influence people to migrate from rural areas.

