

Name _____

Valhalla: The Hall of Heroes in Norse Mythology

Short Answer Key

1. The Valkyries choose the warriors for Valhalla based on their exceptional bravery and valor in battle.
2. The Einherjar engage in daily combat and training, preparing for Ragnarök. They also feast in the evenings, enjoying hearty meals and fine drink.
3. Ragnarök is a cataclysmic event signifying the end of the world in Norse mythology. The Einherjar, who have trained in Valhalla, are destined to fight alongside the gods in this ultimate battle.
4. The concept of Valhalla influenced Viking culture by motivating warriors to achieve greatness on the battlefield and inspiring epic sagas, poems, and funeral customs.
5. The concept of Valhalla continues to capture the imagination of people in modern times due to its association with heroism, honor, and the eternal glory of fallen warriors.

