

Name _____

The Inverted Investigation: A Vertigopolis Mystery

Multiple Choice Questions

1. In the city of Vertigopolis, what is unique about gravity?
  - A. It is stronger than on Earth.
  - B. It is reversed, causing inhabitants to live on the ceilings of buildings.
  - C. It does not exist.
  - D. It changes direction randomly.

2. What unusual discovery did Detective Turner make at the murder scene?
  - A. Footprints leading to the victim
  - B. Signs of a struggle
  - C. The victim's body floating in mid-air
  - D. A confession from a witness

3. Why did Detective Turner don a gravity-reversal suit?
  - A. To blend in with the inhabitants of Vertigopolis
  - B. To float among the buildings and people on the ceilings
  - C. To investigate a different case in the city
  - D. To defy the laws of physics

4. What was the victim in the story known for?
  - A. Being a famous artist
  - B. Being a skilled detective
  - C. Being a brilliant scientist
  - D. Being a notorious criminal

5. What did Detective Turner uncover as he delved deeper into the investigation?
  - A. A web of secrets, rivalries, and scientific experiments gone awry
  - B. The victim's hidden identity
  - C. The murder weapon
  - D. The location of the next crime scene

