

Name _____

Sibling Soldiers: Bound by Service

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think Sarah and Michael's strong bond as siblings influenced their military service and their ability to support each other?
2. Why do you think it was important for Sarah and Michael to celebrate holidays and special occasions, even when they couldn't be together in person?
3. How might their parents' display of both the Army and Navy flags outside their home have impacted Sarah and Michael's sense of pride and belonging to their respective military branches?
4. In what ways do you think the meeting between Sarah and Michael during their training exercises strengthened their bond as siblings and comrades?

