

Name _____

Stories Brewed at Veterans' Café

Short Answer Key

1. Each table had a small plaque with the name and rank of a veteran who had served in different branches of the military.
2. Customers received the opportunity to listen to a veteran's story with every cup of coffee at the café.
3. Sergeant Johnson's story attracted other café patrons, and the atmosphere became filled with a sense of connection and understanding.
4. The Veterans' Brew café became a cherished part of the community.
5. The café's walls were adorned with photographs and memorabilia from different eras, serving as a living tribute to the veterans.

