

Name _____

A Veterans Day Surprise

Short Answer Key

1. Emily and Ben contributed to the Veterans Day celebration by crafting colorful banners and posters to welcome their father home.
2. Lieutenant Colonel Carter managed to surprise his family on Veterans Day by returning home earlier than expected and showing up at their doorstep.
3. Some of the activities and moments the Carter family enjoyed on Veterans Day included sharing stories, having a barbecue meal, and introducing their father to friends and family who had gathered for the celebration.
4. The surprise on Veterans Day symbolized the return of their beloved husband and father, Lieutenant Colonel Daniel Carter, and the love that bound their family together. It was a day of celebration and joy.
5. Veterans Day was a special occasion for the Carters beyond the general celebration of veterans because it marked the return of their deployed loved one, making it a deeply personal and meaningful day for their family.

