

Name _____

The Neighborhood Heroes

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. How do you think the unique bond between military families in Greenwood Heights contributed to their sense of community and support?
2. In what ways did the neighborhood families demonstrate their appreciation and gratitude for the military families during the special Veterans Day event?
3. How do you think the support and empathy shared among the military families in Greenwood Heights made their daily lives easier, especially during deployments and relocations?
4. What qualities and values do you think are essential for a community to come together and support each other as the neighborhood of Greenwood Heights did?

